

Billy Harris

MC Bio

For the past twenty years, Billy Harris has been wowing corporate audiences throughout the United States and around the world. His razor-sharp timing and brilliant improvisational skills have made him one of the most sought-after Corporate MC's in the business.

A cousin of Vaudeville great Georgie Jessel, Billy has been performing his entire life. By the tender age of five and a half, he understood how to "work a room"!

Billy entertains thousands of people every year, working for such companies as Microsoft, IBM, Charles Schwab, Heineken, Accenture, Boeing, Hilton, HP, Fujifilm, and Samsung.

Billy donates his time to Share Our Strength, which is the leading organization in the world fighting to end children's hunger.

When he's not "performing," Billy, his wife Sharon, daughter Georgie, and dog Missy divide their time between Los Angeles and New York.
